PERMISSION TO VIEW R-RATED FILMS

Over the course of the year in various classes and extra-curricular activities, teachers will use films, documentaries and video clips to enrich your child's educational experience and knowledge. For example, in history classes students view films such as The Patriot, Amistad, and documentaries such as Founding Brothers to further their understanding of the Antebellum period in the United States. In Spanish classes, El Note, Hombres, Aramados, and Pan's Labyrinth are viewed to better students' understanding of language, history and culture. It is our goal to view films with an educational purpose and open up a film related discussion.

Some of these films have an R-Rating. This is a general consent to allow your child to view R-rated films in all classes.

On the Parental Release Documents Signature Page, please sign and date next to Permission to View R-Rated Films to signify that you and your child have read and discussed, and understand and agree to the information provided in the document.
